THE "MAINE" BENEFIT FUND

Results in Easy Victory for the Kamehameha Team.

Good Attendance — The Sailors Only Needed

Practice — How the Teams

Lined Up.

A good sized assemblage turned out yesterday afternoon to witness the baseball game between the jolly tars of the U. S. gunboat Bennington and the Kamehameha School team, which was played for the benefit of the fund that has been started in the United States for the families of the dead and wounded of the "Maine" disaster in Havana.

The concourse was largely composed of the men from the Bennington, although a large number of ladies and prominent business men were present to show their sympathy for the cause for which the benefit game had been arranged. It is not known at this writing how much the brave boys cleared on the game, but it is believed that the proceeds will swell the local fund considerably.

The first half of the game was most interesting, and throughout the game the Bennington boys distinguished themselves with the most brilliant fielding at times, and then again, they would miss the easiest kind of grounders and pop-ups, while batted balls that looked sure enough safe would be pulled down with the utmost skill. Eusebio H. E. Smith, who was formerly pitcher of the Academy team at the Annapolis Naval Academy, officiated in the box for Uncle Sam's boys, and while he was very erratic at times owing to lack of practise, he pitched good ball throughout the first part of the game, and struck out the doughty College boys in a way that surprised them. Late in the game his arm lost its strength and they batted him all over the field. It is needless to say that the sympathy of the large gathering was entirely with the Bennington team, and whenever a good play was made by them it was vociferously applauded. The opinion is ventured that with a little more practise this team would be able to cope with any of the teams of the local league. There is abundant good material which could be developed. The school team put up a good article of ball and played a good steady game.

The score at the end of the game was 32 to 14 in favor of Kameameha. One of the pleasant features of the afternoon, and one that was heartily appreciated by the people, was the playing of the band of the Bennington, under the able direction of Bugler Robert E. Schultz. This band is entirely made up of volunteers from among the men on board, and they have purchased instruments at their own expense, and must have indulged in hard practise to have reached the present state of efficiency.

The teams lined up as follows:

BENNINGTON. KAMEHAMEHA.

Smith.....pitcher.....Reuter

Reynor.....catcher.....Kekuwa

Flind.....1st base.....Cockett

Roadhouse.....2nd base.....Pashole

Ducotey.....3rd base.....Burgess

Babin.....short stop.....Harboite

Becker.....left field.....Makanani

Long.....center field.....Kekahuna

Reuter.....right field.....Baker

Did the Talent.

This is what the Sterling Bicycle did to the talent at Cyclomere, Saturday, April 30. We captured first, second or third in all trials and first in all finals. Jones, one first, one second; Sylva, one first, one third; King, two first; Ludloff, two first; Brede, one third; Jackson, one third. Total six firsts, one second, three thirds. Pacific Cycle and Manufacturing Company, agents Sterling Bicycle.

What Happened to Jones.

Jones went into the Criterion Barber Shop to get a hair cut and a scrape as he would in any shop.
Jones came out of the Criterion Barber Shop more than pleased with the manner in which he had been groomed, and remarked to a friend that he had at last found an exception to the general run of barber shops and would become a permanent patron.
